

HONEY CREEK

The Episcopal Diocese of Georgia Retreat Center

About Honey Creek

The Episcopal Diocese of Georgia Retreat Center is located on Honey Creek in Camden County, Georgia. Serving as Holy Ground for the Diocese of Georgia and known to most simply as “Honey Creek,” or “The Creek.” The camp and retreat center are also its spiritual hub.

While functioning as the parish hall for the diocese, the Honey Creek mission is to serve as a spiritual home for ministries, groups, families, and congregations seeking to disconnect from the distractions of daily life and work. More than stunning views, it’s sanctuary and a holy space for time apart from the day-to-day challenges we all face to encounter God in a meaningful way.

This video explains a little more about who we are and what we do, as well as check out the campus online. You can also stop by and visit us in-person, because this is your home too.

Honey Creek is also utilized by individual congregations, families, church groups from various denominations, and other non-profit and business organizations. For a list of upcoming events and to register, please visit our events page. You can also send us a message here.

For media and press inquiries:

Dade Brantley/Executive Director
299 Episcopal Conference Center Rd.
Waverly, GA 31565
p: 912-265-9218
w: honeycreek.org